

Chief of Logistics

Assistant Director for Communications

Inter-Agency Transfer of Equipment

1. The Office of Communications' Research, Development and Production Review Board in its meeting of 3 November 1954 agreed to furnish, without charge, five (5) each "Receiver, radio, type URR-10," stock number 5825-003-7286, to the Federal Communications Commission in view of development work performed by that organization on this type of receiver. It was further agreed that any additional quantity of this item required by the Federal Communications Commission would be on a 100 per cent reimbursement basis.

2. It is therefore requested that action be initiated for the shipment of seven (7) each URR-10 receivers to the Federal Communications Commission in accordance with the above agreement and FCC Order #0157 which is attached hereto.
